Breakout sessions

1) The future of housing management

In light of the Grenfell Tower tragedy and the expected increased focus on consumer regulation in the Social Housing Green Paper, this session will consider the balance between self-service and face to face communication. LA/ALMOs need to know who is living in all of their properties and need to keep this information up to date, how can this be done effectively with support from all touch points with tenants?

Karen Loweman, Director of Housing Management, Colchester Borough Homes and second speaker to be confirmed

2) Regional government and impact of devolution

This session will provide an overview on the impact of devolution across different regions. Considering the differences between LA/ALMOs with a devolved administration and those without.

Speaker to be confirmed

3) A voice for tenants

In this session Nic and Sarita will provide an update on A Voice for Tenants as well as the Benefit to Society campaign and the relationship between the two.

Nic Bliss, Head of Policy, The Confederation of Co-operative Housing and Sarita-Marie Rehman-Wall, Board Vice-Chair, NFA
